DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission on 02/26/2009 has been entered. Upon entering the submission, claims 33, 38, and 43 are currently pending in the instant application.

Response to RCE Submission

Claim rejection under 35 U.S.C. §112, 1st paragraph

Applicants' amendment by cancelling the rejected subject matter of "solvate" obviates the rejection.

Claim rejection under 35 U.S.C. §103(a)

Applicants' amendment of claim 33 by further limiting $\text{Ar}^2\text{-(R}^{10})_r$ obviates the rejection. The support for such amendment can be found at paragraph [0307] of the instant specification.

ODP rejection

Applicants' amendment obviates the rejection.

Since all the art rejections have been overcome, search and examination are expanded to the previously non-elected subject matter of claims 33, 38, and 43.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 43 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Specifically, the term “pharmaceutical active ingredient other than the compounds of claim 38” is not described in the specification to reasonably convey one skilled in the art. The paragraph [0396] only gives a general description of “pharmaceutical active ingredient” as showing valuable pharmaceutical properties. However, many compounds show valuable pharmaceutical properties for treating different diseases or disorders, such as treating cancers, pain, allergies, inflammation, diabetes, etc. The instant specification fails to describe specifically which type of pharmaceuticals reagents can be combined with the instantly claimed compound form a composition with useful pharmaceutical utilities.

Claim Objections

Claim 33 is objected to because of the following informalities: Markush-type claim language is not appropriate. The term “or” should be “and” at the second line under Ar¹, see MPEP§803.02 Markush Claims “A Markush-type claim recites alternatives in a format such as "selected from the group consisting of A, B and C."".

Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 33 and 38 are objected to because of the following informalities: the term "or salts thereof" is suggested to be amended to "a pharmaceutically acceptable salt thereof". Paragraph [0024] of the instant specification supports such an amendment.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed.
